Fr. W. Huesman gave a full report to the theologians on the J.E.A. meeting he recently attended in Chicago; he also reported on several other theological meetings in the Midwest.

Fr. James McQuade, the National Promoter of Sodalities, visited Alma for two days. While here he made himself available to the theologians for colloquy and discussion on Sodality matters. He also gave a domestic exhortation outlining the crucial, and as yet somewhat potential, role of the laymen in the Church. He showed how the Spiritual Exercises as a personal instrument and the Sodality as an institutional instrument are the most apt Jesuit means of activating the laymen's potential. From Alma Fr. McQuade went to the University of Santa Clara for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the establishment of its Sodality. The Alma choir, under the direction of Mr. J. Kaufer (Ore.) sang the centennial Mass.

The Catechesis. The year's activity by the theologians at the Guadalupe Mexican Mission in San Jose comes to a close with the reception of Confirmation by 150 adults and teenagers. A class of 76 First Communicants in April and another class of 80 in May brought this year's total to 237 First Communions. Through the combined efforts of the Alma theologians and the University of Santa Clara Sodalists a picnic for 350 of the children was held on the final day of catechism class. Recent part-time catechists have been Messrs. M. Buckley and Stoltz.

The Redactions. Mr. Blake had an article on the history of Alma in the Los Gatos pictorial, West Valley Life.

Since 1957 Mr. Hyde has been compiling an annual statistical report on the work of the Jesuit Brothers in the American Assistancy. His latest report was published in Woodstock Letters.

Mr. Jonsen's article, " 'Insight,' Thomism and Contemporary Philosophy," appeared in the April-June, 1960, issue of Revue de l'Universite d'Ottawa.

Fr. Farragher's pastoral note on "Confessional Questioning on Self-abuse" appeared in the May issue of The Priest.

The Laying-on of Hands. Because of the sickness of his mother, Fr. Enslow (Ore.) was ordained a priest in Mt. St. Michael's chapel on May 14th. The remaining Oregonian ordinandi will be ordained on June 11th in St. Aloysius Church, Spokane. They are W. Dibb, K. Galbraith, J. O'Leary, J. Retzel, J. Small, T. Sullivan, P. Tonan, D. Weber, T. Dr. Hugh Gillis, from the Communication Arts department of San Jose State College, gave the Alma Lecture for May. With the aid of several actual movie sequences, he illustrated and explained the various techniques of motion picture editing.

Here and There. A group of theology professors from the Bay area met at Alma for the presentation and discussion of a paper on "Biblical Theology" by Fr. Frank Norris, of St. Patrick's Seminary.

The American Assistancy Provincials took time out from their conference in San Francisco to visit Alma and have dinner with the community.

Fr. D. O'Hanlon returned from a semester at Harvard University, where he attended the lectures of Paul Tillich. After recuperating in San Francisco from his recent illness, Fr. J. Curran is again back at Alma.

Mr. D. Olivier (Ore.) had an emergency appendectomy at the Santa Cruz hospital. Just a few days previously he had been in charge of the annual spring house picnic, and had brought off the event in the grand manner.

Mr. J. Seipp (Ore.) went to Spokane for the funeral or his father.

Improvements. The halls in the theologians' buildings are in the process of being brightened with a fresh coat of paint. New benches dot the Alma gardens, thanks to the skill of Mr. McConville. Improvements continue to be made at Lower lake under a most progressive management: the latest is a new high-diving platform, converted from portable airplane steps.

In the End. As the final issue of Vol. 36 of the PROVINCE NEWS goes to press, the summer drifts lazily through the walls and around the corners of Alma College. The scholastics, one by one, march tense and alert into the examination rooms, and emerge several theses later with the thesis sheet limp in their sweaty palms. The professors slap their Denzingers shut with a conviction of finality, for the end is in sight. And although the end carries with it the re-creation of a warm slow summer; yet, as always, the end thrusts on into a new beginning, whether that beginning, is of another year of theology, or of tertianship, or of the priesthood itself.

NOVITIATE

On April 24, a number of Bellarmine students spent several hours sight-seeing at the Novitiate and visiting with the Novices and Juniors.

The last few days of April and the first of May, Bro. Yoshioka completed installing a new house telephone system, which gives good promise of greater reliability than the older one which had already seen several years service.

On May 3, Bro. Grosskopf returned from the Mid-west where he had been gathering information on programs to promote Brothers' vocations.

May 4 was Fr. Rector's day, which was climaxed by an especially fine performance of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar by the Juniorate thespians. The Junior-Novice baseball classic, which for many years was played on this day, is now played on another date. This year it will be on the feast of St. Andrew Bobola, May 21.

Fr. Harkin attended a meeting of the Classical Association of the Pacific States in Sacramento, May 7. He had been invited there especially to summarize a paper that he had presented at the meeting of the American Philological Association in New York at Christmas.

Fr. John Kelly directed the spring triduum for the Bellarmine scholastics. Fr. F. Silva lectured to the Juniors on the importance and meaning of the Two Standards in the Spiritual Exercises.

About 25 Novices and the same number of Juniors donated blood to the Red Cross Blood Bank in Los Gatos, May 11.

Fr. James McQuade, national director of the Sodality of Our Lady, addressed the Novices and Juniors in separate lectures on May 13.

The Brothers of St. John of God at Ojai have reported themselves well pleased with the help they receive from our Novices in their hospital experiment. The Novices are well pleased also.

Along with the new Willmes press, reported in the last issue of Province News, the winery is planning other improvements in the fermenting room. It has already received approval to install an "ion exchange column" which will eliminate the need for long and costly chilling of the wines to prevent the precipitation of tartrates.

Landscaping in front of the house is proceeding rapidly. Of special note is the new garden just to the east of Regis Hall (Province Infirmary).

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

The annual meeting of the Fathers Provincial of the United States and Canada was held during the early part of the month.

Fr. Vaughan wrote an article on "Neuroticism and Perfection" in the Review for Religious.

Fr. McGloin addressed the Sonoma County Historical Society on the profitable enjoyment of the past. Under the auspices of the Society of California Pioneers, he also lectured on California's first archbishop, Joseph Alemany, O.P.

Forensics. U.S.F. captured the annual Gold Medal debate when the Philhistorian president and vice president won over Loyola in Los Angeles. A trophy won for the past two years, will become permanent by one more victory.

The annual President's Day was celebrated with the customary ceremonies. Mass in the church was attended by faculty and students; rain cancelled proposed athletic events; Fr. President was host at a faculty dinner in Phelan Hall in the evening.

"Where's Charley?" was staged by the College Players in the Little Theatre before very well pleased audiences.

Preparations have finally begun in earnest for the coming of the Sutro Library. All legal snarls seem to be untangled and the north wall of Gleeson library has been breached to make an entrance and foyer.

The Jesuit Mothers held their annual Communion in our church and breakfast in Phelan Hall.

Bro. Ferrill is still in critical condition. He has had rallies and reverses in his condition. Fr. James Kearney suffered a slight stroke and is also hospitalized. Fr. Howard spent a few days in the hospital for a check-up.

BELLARMINE

Entrance Test. On May 27th, 378 eighth-graders showed up for "Freshman Day". Only about 200 of these will be accepted. The other 60 will be chosen from prospective resident students who are taking the test individually.

Awards. At St. Mary's Catholic Press Convention, Bellarmine's CARDINAL took second place for boys' schools; first in photography, and honorable mention for one of its feature columns: "Vetter Visits".

Sodality. First Friday was also "May Day". Fr. R. Kelley preached the sermon at the students' Mass, and in the afternoon the sodality prefect gave a talk and started the living rosary, at which each prayer was led by a different sodalist.

On Sunday 22nd a day of recollection was given for the sodalists; 25 probationers (sophomores and juniors) were received by Fr. Rector (Keenan).

Dads and Sons' Day. On the vigil of the Ascension the Dads' Club turned the campus into a picnic ground. The faculty, dads and sons enjoyed games, swimming, and barbecued chicken together. Many dads of boarders traveled great distances for the occasion and were able to take their sons back for a homegoing.

The Mothers of the Guild have continued their scholarship parties with the usual generosity and success. At least one of the affairs was "different": a Sunday breakfast in the patio of the Red Coach Inn with country fair attractions.

Jesuit Mothers. Last year's officers have accepted another term: namely, Mrs. Rewak, Pres.; Mrs. Cahalan, V.P.; Mrs. Trent, sec.; and Mrs. Franxman, treas.

On May 22nd, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Saso opened their beautiful home and patio again for the annual pot-luck supper for Jesuits and families related to Jesuits.

Triduum. Fr. J. Kelly gave the triduum for the renewal of vows on the feast of St. Robert Bellarmine. During the triduum the scholastics were relieved of much of the prefecting by the neo-regents: Messrs. Cunningham, Fulco, Maes, Werner.

Sports. The swimming and track teams have won the CAL championships. Varsity Baseball took second place; the J.V.'s won 17, lost 2; and the freshmen, coached by Mr. Bremner and Bro. Ryan had a 9-5 season.

Mr. Nolan, as coach of last season's J.V. football team was honored by the fathers of some of the players. They presented him with a large and rather expensive plaque commemorating Bellarmine's "all-time greatest J.V. football team". On the plaque are many brass plates engraved with the record of all the games played and the names of the coaches and of all the players.

Personalia. Fr. Rector has been named a director of the local chapter of the Red Cross.

Fr. Gerald Flynn is spending a couple of weeks with us for a period of rest and recuperation.

ST. IGNATIUS HIGH SCHOOL

votion and reverence. Mr. Campbell had charge of the altar boys, who did yeoman service at the Holy Season's close.

Footlights. The annual musical was presented two nights and a Sunday afternoon in Marina Junior High's Auditorium. The colorful vehicle "Paint Your Wagon" hearkened back to "the days of old, the days of gold, the days of '49." The creditable performance, staged by Mr. Seidler and Mr. Tollini, was well received. Sizable revenue came from the ads in an interesting program.

Mary's Day. Friday, May 6th, was Our Lady's Day at St. Ignatius High. At the First Friday Mass, said by Fr. Rector (P. J. Carroll), the Sacred Heart seniors were our guests. After Mass the blessing of the athletic trophy was given by Fr. Rector. At the assembly in the gym in honor of Our Lady, student-body president Tony Madrid and the student council led the students in the Rosary. Fr. Rector gave Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament after an address on Mary by a senior student.

President's Day. The entire faculty and student body attended Mass at 9 a.m. to inaugurate a day in honor of Fr. President. Fr. Carroll preached at the Mass. Many boys received Holy Communion. Field events and the faculty-student baseball game were attended by more lads than usual. Youth, at least of S.I. 1960, prevailed in the game over the aging faculty. An al-fresco lunch was served for all present. In the evening the faculty, lay and Jesuit, enjoyed a special dinner in our dining room.

Varia. At the annual St. Mary's College Debate Tournament, St. Ignatius took the first-place trophy. On April 30, the Dads' Club held a dinner dance, western style, in the gym. The prize this year in the baseball season is to be able to play in Candlestick Park. S.I. is at present second to Sacred Heart. A special dinner in our dinning room was given for the visiting American and Canadian Provincials, who were meeting in Xavier Hall.

In connection with sports, the University has won recognition for its infant crew team, which has qualified to participate in the Western Inter-Collegiate Rowing Championship at Long Beach on May 21. This crew and the new rugby team was promoted by a senior Steve Slingsby, who has been selected for a Coro Foundation Fellowship because of his scholastic standing and these activities. The University's bowling team won the intercollegiate championship this spring.

On May 3, the English departments of the Catholic colleges in the area met at the Student Center.

During this past month, Fr.

In his defense it must be said that he was making a sincere effort to get on the correct side but because of traffic difficulties, unkind fate caught up with him before he could negotiate the street crossing.

Fr. Farmer has been in Daniel Freeman Hospital preparatory to a hernia operation which will remedy an ailment of long standing. The intervening time is being spent in getting him into physical condition. Fr. Jenkins is also in the hospital having X-rays on his back to determine the source of severe pains there. Fr. Reilly remains the same, except that news from the hospital on May 18 stated that his condition was somewhat worse as his blood pressure had risen very high that morning with some added complications. Prayer seems to be the only remedy for him now.

Rector (Plushkell) spoke to the parents of St. Monica's High School on "Growing Up with Your Children"; on April 27th to the seventh and eighth graders of St. Augustine's on "The Value of a Jesuit Education" and on April 30th at the Communion breakfast of the Catholic physicians of St. Luke's Hospital on "The Tools a High School Graduate Needs to Succeed in College".

Cadillac Raffle Drive. Our annual fund-raising drive went 108 percent over the mark this year when the final returns were counted on May 17th. Each of the three working groups had its own colored coupon books to sell in the five-week drive. Their combined efforts grossed $34,307. The breakdown--Alumni: $5,525; Dads' Club: $8,737; Students: $20,045.

Sunday Afternoon Concert. Our Loyola Glee Club together with their Director, Mr. Gonsalves, and Louis Sprague, their student accompanist, joyfully took part in another Sunday afternoon choral festival on May 15th, this time in a joint concert as guests of the Capa Club of the Mayfield Catholic Girls High School on their beautiful Bellefontaine Campus in Pasadena.

Every seat was occupied in the renaissance auditorium and an overflowing crowd clustered around the open doors and windows to enjoy the songs of each individual group. Then followed the joint effort in the grand chorus of 75 fresh, young voices in selections that ranged from Bach and Mozart to "South Pacific" and "The Music Man."

Loyola Benefactress Honored. A downtown hospital executive was replaced by a younger one after twelve years of outstanding service. During her administration she marked "Paid" several thousand dollars worth of bills before she mailed them to us. Father Rector requested a Spiritual Bouquet for her from the community; each priest contributed two Masses and each non-priest two rosaries and two Communion. This was gratefully given and joyfully received by Sister M. Raymond, O.S.F., for twelve years Superior of the devoted Franciscan community on the staff of Queen of Angels Hospital.

Last Inspection of Loyola's ROTC. After four decades of vigorous life in the city of Los Angeles, the Loyola ROTC held its last annual Federal inspection on Wednesday, May 11th, in the presence of top-ranking federal army officials, headed by Major Hugh Fraser, personally representing the Commanding General of the Sixth U.S. Army.

For the last time Loyola's cadet corps was inspected and rated in field and classroom efficiency, and in its records and supplies. A field inspection scrutinized uniforms and rifles. In the classroom cadets were examined in their knowledge of weapons and tactics; and officers in their ability to teach these subjects to others.

The Loyola Drill Team then marched out and smartly supported by Major Hirning's 40-piece Army Band, went through their parade exercises, led by their own officers, with snap and precision, under the sharp eyes of their commanding officer, Major Robert Blume.

The quick motions of the Drill Team, in their white gloves and white helmets, roused Major Fraser to alertness and enthusiasm. "A crack drill team," he said to Major Blume, "if ever I saw one. And among high schools I've never seen a better."

Thus since 1919 for the tenth and last time, Loyola won the highest possible military rating and award: HONOR SCHOOL.

Catholic Forensic Tournament. In the Catholic Forensic Tourney, held at Loyola U on May 14th, the Loyola team of 16 speakers, coached by Mr. O'Neill, won six places in the finals, thereby winning the Tournament for the third time since 1956, and thereby taking the Cardinal McIntyre Award out of circulation and bringing into retirement at Loyola the Grand Sweepstakes Trophy.

Fr. Rector's Namenstag. Fr. Rector's feastday (St. Robert Bellarmine, Friday, May 13th) was celebrated for obvious reasons on Friday, May 6th, and the holiday was thus welcomed by all. It was a warm spring day, and, standing on the cool grass of the lawn in the patio, Father recieved with smiles the best wishes of the community and invited guests, Frs. Alhadeff, G. Crowley, D. Finnegan and Von der Ahe. Fr. Minister then started the long black column towards the special fish dinner he had provided in the refectory.

Native Son's Oratory Contest. In the finals of the Native Sons statewide oratorical contest, held in Bakersfield, May 15th, Dean Gargano, a Loyola Senior, coached by Mr. Cooney, was awarded second place together with a $500 government bond, the same award he won last year at San Rafael. This year however, he found it easier to congratulate the winner, a girl from Marin Catholic High.

New Fourth R. Program. Our annual Cadillac Raffle Drive no longer suffices to meet the rising costs of education at Loyola. Accordingly, early this school year, 1959-60, a new program, the Fourth R, was launched. You're right. Yes, R stands for Revenue. Revenue on a regular, monthly, cash basis, to supplement and complete the one big effort in May each year, the Cadillac Raffle Drive.

On May 20th Fr. Rector announced that this year's Fourth R Program had just reached $55,084. There are four classes of contributors: (1) parents of present students, (2) alumni, (3) friends, and (4) corporation associates. Among these are Gilfillan Bros., Inc., Hughes Aircraft Company, and others. Hughes Aircraft, for example, has a matching gift plan for high schools. If you are an employee they will match any gift you make to a specified school, from $10 to $1000 per calendar year.

Sports. The Varsity nine, coached by Mr. Mario DiMuro, came from behind to win the Catholic League Pennant and end the 1960 season with a 10-2 record. Another Varsity team won the League Tennis title. The Varsity Track team, coached by Frs. Sargent and J. Duggan, after winning four dual meets, lost to powerful Notre Dame, and tied for second place with Pius X and Serra. The "mighty" varsity Juniors again made a clean sweep in all three major sports of the C.L., football, basketball and baseball for 1959-60. They were coached by Mr. Flynn.

Brother Doyle Honored. Many of our community did not realize we had another "Mr. Chips" among us until last Thursday, May 19th, when the Loyola student body presented our Bro. Doyle with what is to them a precious gift and a beautiful name and citation for his faithful, persevering, cheerful devotedness to one task: keeping the Loyola campus and play areas always neat and clean for more than 20 years.

The gift was a large block "L" to wear on any or all his sweaters. And with it was this name and citation: "To BROTHER LOYOLA for his outstanding contribution to the Spirit of Loyola High School." It was subscribed by the Rev. E.J. McFadden, S.J. Vice Principal, W.F. Barnett, Athletic Director, and Peter Sawaya, President L.H.S. student body.

Emergency Loans. In answer to a telephone call on May 11th, an urgent appeal for help from Pius X High School where two religion teachers had suddenly taken ill--a call which had been relayed to Fr. Rector through the Chancery Office--Messrs. Del Re and Valla were loaned to our good neighbors, and left next day to fill the vacancies.

Jubilee Plans. By special permission Fr. Bassett's golden jubilee is to take place at the University of S.F. on Saturday, June 25th. Plans include a Missa Cantata to be sung by the jubilarian in the Carmelite Monastery Chapel at 11a.m., and the presence of his former Los Gatos students: Fr. Provincial, assistant priest; Fr. Toner, the sermon; and Fr. Harney, the Suscipe.

Distinguished Visitor. Loyola welcomed the Most Rev. Joseph Hernandez, D.D., Catholic Archbishop of New Delhi, capital of the new independent republic of India. His Excellency was ordained high in the Himalayas, in Darjeeling, Bengal consecrated in Calcutta, and has 15 priests in his archdiocese.

MOUNT SAINT MICHAEL'S

The annual choir picnic was held at the Gonzaga University villa at Hayden Lake. Over forty members of the Christmas and Easter choirs were in attendance. Messrs. Shea and Kuykendall made the arrangements and prepared excellent meals.
